Re: Closing Date for Equifax claims

Your Honor,

I write with concerns regarding the processing of claims at the Equifax Settlement Administration office in Seattle.

Attached is a copy of my USPS Priority Mail postage receipt showing I mailed my initial claim¹ to the Administration Center on January 21, 2020. Also attached is a copy of the official Equifax claim form which states claims 'must be postmarked' by January 22, 2020.

On February 21, 2020, I contacted the Settlement Administration office to ask about amending² my initial claim. The Settlement Administration³ office informed me that I did not have a claim, and that because I mailed my claim on January 21, 2020, it would not have been in the office by January 22nd, and would not have met the deadline, and therefore not acknowledged.

I have re-submitted my claim, along with more than twenty-five supporting documents, to the Settlement Administration office for reconsideration.

¹ Initial claim amount: $ 4,579.00

² Seeking to amend claim to reflect costs associated with isolating and removing malware and unauthorized javascript code from operating systems; costs which we had previously attributed to the Yahoo breach. $ 628.20

Equifax Data Breach Claim Form

SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU MAY GET

If you are a U.S. consumer whose personal information was impacted by the Equifax data breach announced on September 7, 2017, you may submit a claim.

The easiest way to submit a claim is online at www.EquifaxBreachSettlement.com, or you can complete and mail this claim form to the mailing address above.

You may submit a claim for one or more of these benefits:

Credit monitoring or Cash Payment of up to $125: Use the claim form to request free credit monitoring services. Or, if you already have credit monitoring services, and will have them for at least six months after filing your claim, you can request a cash payment of up to $125.

Cash Reimbursement. Use the claim form to request money for one or more of the following:

1. Reimbursement for Time Spent. If you spent time trying to avoid or recover from fraud or identity theft because of the Equifax data breach, you can get up to $25 per hour for up to 10 total hours, or up to 20 total hours if you provide supporting documents.
2. Reimbursement for Money You Spent. If you spent money trying to avoid or recover from fraud or identity theft because of the Equifax data breach, you can be reimbursed up to $20,000. You must submit documents supporting your claim.
3. Up to 25% Reimbursement for Equifax Credit Monitoring Subscriptions. If you had an Equifax credit monitoring or identity theft protection subscription between 9/7/2016 and 9/7/2017, you can get a payment of up to 25% of the amount you paid.

A claim is required for identity restoration services. U.S. consumers impacted by the Equifax data breach will be able to access identity restoration services for a period of at least 7 years once the Settlement is final. More information is available at www.EquifaxBreachSettlement.com.
